

11:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

Don Helin

How Fast Can a Novel Run: The Art of Pacing

Your novel should start fast and keep moving. In this interactive workshop, you'll find the secret of structuring a novel that will keep your readers awake at night and coming back for more.

During his time in the military, Don Helin served seven years in the Pentagon as well as multiple tours in the United States and overseas. His Washington D.C. insider positions have provided him ample material for his novels.

Author of new release, Devil's Den and Thy Kingdom Come (published 2009). Don is an active member of International Thriller Writers, Mystery Writers of America, and Pennwriters, a Pennsylvania writers group.

He makes his home in central Pennsylvania. For more information visit www.donhelin.com.