

10:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.

Karl Stewart

Writing the Western: Research and Realism

New author Karl Stewart shares his methods of bringing the Western to life. From research to dialogue, Karl has excellent advice for the new writer.

Karl Stewart was raised in the hills and forests of West Virginia. Inspired by the mystery on an old man he loved, he now writes stories of the Old West centered on that legend, his great-grandfather, from his home high on a ridge in rural Wisconsin. He is the author of The Legend of See Bird: The Last Long Drive.